Carry

Aransa Garcia, Briany Taveras, Giselle
Sanchez & Kathy Puma

- Brands must adapt to environment that prioritizes instant gratification.
- Items take time to arrive or have limited options for same-day delivery.

THE PROBLEM:

New market and same day limitations

- Carry is a three-sided marketplace for quick, same-day delivery.
- Tailored to help businesses evolve to the changing market.
- Focus on luxury and lifestyle items.

THE SOLUTION:

Lifestyle and luxury focused online marketplace

- Location API - Latitude & Longitude
- Context API, Hooks & Material UI- State Management & Design
- Sessions - Anonymous users
- Twilio - Notifications

TECHNICAL MILESTONES:

Learning new technologies

- Full user platforms - customer, courier & store
- Payment & notification features
- Increase store partnership & inventory integration

FUTURE IMPLEMENTATIONS:

Platform expansion
